

NOTICE TO ALL ATTORNEYS

The Licking County Bar Association will hold a luncheon and CLE seminar on Friday, June 6, 2025, at the Licking County Library, Meeting Room A, 101 West Main Street, Newark, Ohio 43055. The CLE is entitled “Ethics and Risk of Generative AI Use by Litigants and Courts” and will be presented by Merisa K. Bowers, Esq., Loss Prevention & Outreach Counsel from the Ohio Bar Liability Insurance Company, Columbus, Ohio. Registration and lunch pick-up will be at 11:30 a.m. and the CLE program will begin promptly at 11:50 a.m.

This CLE presentation will discuss the use of generative AI and its implications with the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct, including Privacy & Confidentiality, Disclosure and Informed Consent by Clients, Diligence and Competence, Oversight, Solicitation, and Integrity and Fairness. Ms. Bowers will review various advisory opinions from bar associations across the country, and other rules and regulations emerging at the local and state level.

There is a $15.00 cost for LCBA members. The cost for non-members is $30.00. Registration can be completed by either submitting your registration and payment via the Licking County Bar Association Website on the calendar / payment link, or by completing the form below and mailing it along with the registration fee to the address listed below. One and a quarter (1.25) professional conduct CLE credits will be awarded to those attending this program.
